THE 1968 MOSAIC

Published by Canevin High School
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

“We repudiate the false notion that the classroom teachers are less effective in the apostolate than are religious and laity engaged in other apostolic pursuits.”

—National Council Of Bishops 1968

HIS EXCELLENCY JOHN B. McDOWELL

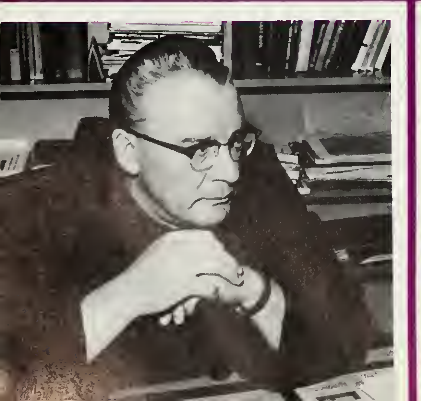
REV. SEVERIN DIETRICH, O. F. M., Conv.
Boys' Vice Principal



PROMPTINGS:

The drift of your life, now taking on initial current, can be urged into the channel of golden days.

Love to shine,
To beam
Rays of hope
And trust.
Then,
Self-lighted
With the light
Of the Father
Of Lights,
You will dissolve
The three Specters
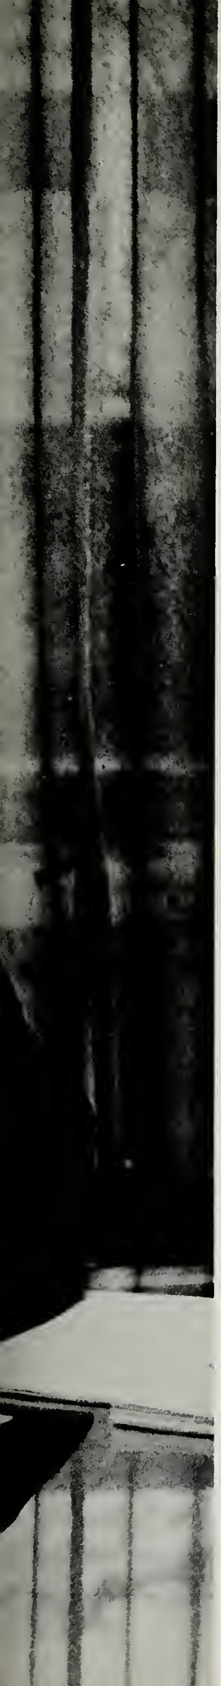
Of humanity:
Guilt,
Fear
And doubt.

Thus dawns the cycle of golden days.



"Association with Canevin
has been an interesting and rewarding educational and social experience."

“To dream
is to think
by moonlight”

Enchantment overwhelms Arlene Cengia and Paul Lapira at their first semi-formal dance, the Sophomore Cotillion.

Representing three hundred twelve of their classmates, Walter Leninsky and Mary Lou Butler anticipate the ceremonies and celebrations of Graduation Day set for June 2 at the Syria Mosque in Oakland.

"Strong men tremble when they hear it; they've got cause enough to fear it; it's much blacker than they smear it – nobody mentions my name." – Bill Sikes

Fagin, minus boys, home and money, wonders if it is too late in life to "go straight."

Nancy expresses her love and loyalty to Bill Sikes, even though she is harshly mistreated by him.

The Artful Dodger tries to persuade homeless Oliver to come with him and join Fagin's establishment.

"I shall scream," shouts Widow Corney, as Mr. Brumble approaches her on the subject of marriage. Little does he realize what he will soon get himself into.
